

Directions from Bergerac Airport to Château Soulac

1. Leave airport on exit road and turn right at T Junction
2. At next roundabout turn left signposted Ste. Foy La Grande, Castillon la Bataille and Bordeaux.
3. Continue straight over the first roundabout and again at the second roundabout which features a McDonalds and Leclerc shopping Centre, take last exit signposted Bordeaux (D936)
4. The Bordeaux road will take you onto the new St Foy la Grande bypass which is dual carriageway. Soon after the road returns to single lane you will arrive at sign Les Réaux and just after this a roundabout, where you turn left which is signposted for "St Seurin de P, Pessac, Gensac"
5. Follow this road through Les Granges, watching out for speed cameras, then on through St Seurin des Prats, then the bridge takes you over the Dordogne and into Pessac Sur Dordogne where the road bears right. Continue through the village past the small shop.
6. Just after the exit Pessac village sign take the turning right, sign posted for Flaujagues, Castillon and Juillac.
7. Follow this road all the way up the hill around the sharp bends up onto the top of the hill where the road bends sharply to the right and starts to descend. After about 1000 metres the road bends again to the right and you take the left hand turning up hill signed "Juillac 1.5" and if you look very closely there is also a sign for Soulac at this point.
8. After a few hundred meters the road swings left with a dead end ahead of you and a small sign pointing out Soulac to the right. Turn right here and Château Soulac is just at the bottom of this drive.
